DEPUTY EDITOR - WAGGA WAGGA

One of Australia's leading regional newspapers has an outstanding opportunity for a newsroom leader to take the next step in their career!

The Daily Advertiser, based in Wagga Wagga is looking for a Deputy Editor to join its newsroom and expand your career.

Based in the largest inland city in NSW, the Deputy Editor role is responsible for ensuring our audience receives high-quality local content when, where and how they want it, as well as assisting to manage the day to day running of the newsroom.

The diverse and challenging role will also provide opportunities to produce content and perform other editorial tasks for multiple titles and operating groups, outside of the main portfolio, as required and directed.

As an editorial leader, you will be an advocate for new ways of working in our business and actively contribute to building a modern, stronger rural and regional media network. You will be a genuine people leader - a great coach and mentor with an empathetic approach to team members.

You will exhibit good judgement and leadership across editorial functions and work constructively with the sales department and other Australian Community Media colleagues to help implement editorial initiatives that will reaffirm the dominant position of our mastheads in their respective markets.

Responsibilities of the role include (but are not limited to):

- Help the Editor to drive development programs to build on existing relationships with our community
- Coach and mentor the editorial team
- Be the 'Face' of the mastheads in public and engage in high-level community engagement activities
- Help to drive cross-functional partnerships
- Assist in the execution of agreed editorial strategy
- Be an advocate for News Now strategy, ensuring content is developed in a way which builds engagement, and change is sustained
- Practice journalistic excellence and strive to maintain Fairfax editorial values of credibility, accuracy, high quality journalism and community empathy, while maintaining a focus on News Now Provide coaching and mentoring to editorial staff

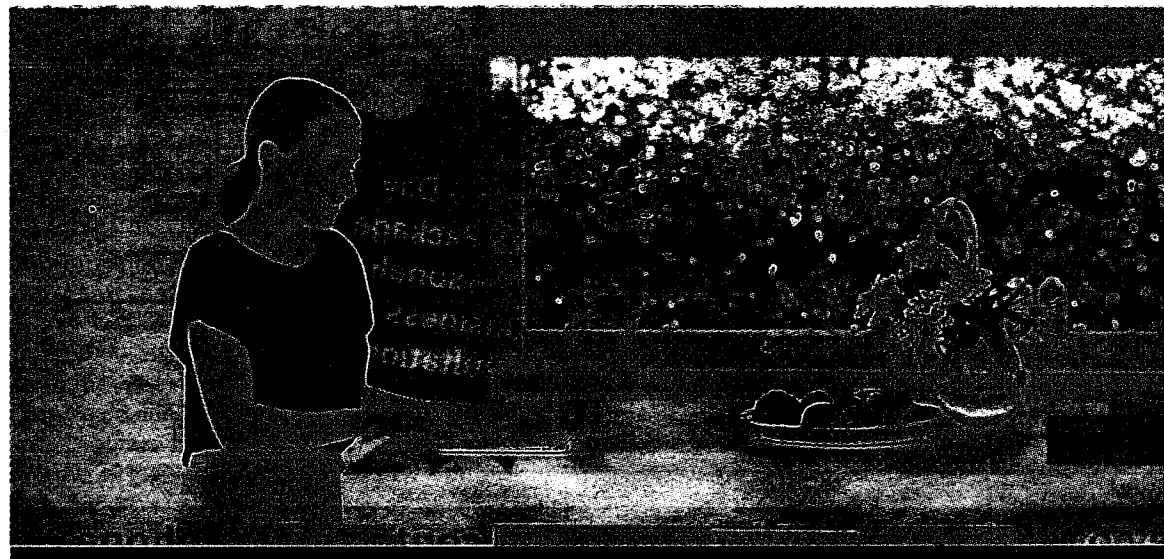

If this sounds like you then connect with us today!!

Australian Community Media have been bringing news to our rural and regional communities for more than 150 years, as our business continues to evolve, by introducing new technologies and doing things differently, we can make our newspapers and websites even better than they have ever been.

Applications can be made online at careers.fairfaxmedia.com.au position number 22771.

Applications close Tuesday, 31 January, 2017.
